

ITF RETURN TO INTERNATIONAL TENNIS PROTOCOLS

Note: this protocol is subject to change. Last amended – 21 August 2020.

Precautions must be taken to reduce the risk of transmission of Covid-19 at ITF tournaments (“Tournaments”). One element of this is to check whether participants have any of the main Covid-19 symptoms. Each day that participants attend a Tournament, prior to entering the Tournament venue, each participant shall have their temperature checked using an infra-red thermometer, and shall be asked questions relating to symptoms of, and exposure to, Covid-19.

No participant who has a measured temperature of 38°C or above, or who declares symptoms of, or exposure to, Covid-19 will be permitted on-site. A decision to deny access for these reasons is final and cannot be appealed.

In the event that a participant is denied access to the site due to failure of the above self-declaration and/or temperature screening, their personal details will be provided to local health authorities (as required) and the ITF, for the purposes of contact tracing.

For more information about how and why the ITF collects, processes and stores your personal data in response to Covid-19, please see the ITF’s Covid-19 Privacy Notice, which is available on the ITF website at www.itftennis.com
